

The implementation of a federal law preempting the Indiana "Do Not Call" statutes is not desired. The Indiana law has eliminated the constant problem of receiving unsolicited sales calls. I see no benefit in having federal law that supercedes a very effective state law on the same matter.